

The Project 2049 Institute, The Japan Institute of International Affairs (JIJA), and the Okazaki Institute present:

Japanese Perspectives on The U.S.-Japan Alliance: New Opportunities, Rising Tensions, and the Armitage-Nye Report

Thursday, October 4, 2012
3:30 PM – 5:30 PM

Dirksen Senate Office Building
Constitution Avenue and 1st Street, NE Washington, DC 20002
SD-562

Please join us for an expert discussion on the challenges and opportunities ahead for the U.S.-Japan alliance. In August 2012, Ambassador Richard Armitage and Dr. Joseph Nye released the third edition of the Armitage-Nye report U.S.-Japan Alliance: Anchoring Stability in Asia, which offered recommendations for Japan, the U.S., and the alliance spanning energy, security, and the economy. In this follow on discussion, Japanese experts will provide their own perspectives on the feasibility of their recommendations and suggestions for the U.S.-Japan alliance going forward.

AGENDA:

3:30 PM – Opening Comments

Randy Schriver

President and CEO, Project 2049 Institute

Partner, Armitage International, 3rd Armitage-Nye Report Study Group Participant

3:40 PM – Towards an Allied Security Strategy

Hideaki Kaneda

Vice Admiral (ret), Director of the Okazaki Institute and Adjunct Fellow, JIJA

Sak Sakoda

Partner, Armitage International, 3rd Armitage-Nye Report Study Group Participant

4:20 PM – Relations with Neighbors and Cooperation on Energy and Trade

Hideki Asari

Deputy Director-General, JIJA

Victor Cha

Senior Adviser and Korea Chair, CSIS, and Professor of Government and Director of Asian Studies, Georgetown University, 3rd Armitage Nye Report Study Group Participant

5:00 PM – Question and Answer Session

Please RSVP by contacting Isabella Mroczkowski at events@project2049.net. For inquiries please contact Project 2049 Institute at (703) 879-3993.