

The Project 2049 Institute cordially invites you to -

The Taiwan Relations Act at 30

A seminar on Capitol Hill

Welcoming remarks

Randall Schriver

President and CEO, Project 2049 Institute

Opening

Senator James Inhofe (co-host and invited speaker)

Co-chair, Senate Taiwan Caucus

The TRA: 1979-2009

Shirley Kan

Foreign Affairs, Defense, and Trade Division, Congressional Research Service

Peter Brookes

Senior Fellow, National Security Affairs and Chung Ju-Yung Fellow for Policy Studies, Asian Studies Center, The Heritage Foundation

Dr. Joseph Wu

Research fellow, Institute of International Relations, National Chengchi University

Moderated by Randall Schriver

President and CEO, Project 2049 Institute

Remarks

Senator Mel Martinez (R-FL)

Senate Taiwan Caucus

The TRA: continuing relevance and challenges going forward

Rupert Hammond-Chambers

President, US-Taiwan Business Council

Dr. James Mulvenon

Director, Center for Intelligence Research and Analysis

Dr. Shelley Rigger

Associate Professor of Political Science, Davidson College

Moderated by Mark Stokes

Executive Director, Project 2049 Institute

Keynote Address

James A. Kelly

Former Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs

Closing Remarks

Senator Sherrod Brown (D-OH)

Senate Taiwan Caucus

PROJECT
2049
INSTITUTE

Thursday, April 2nd

1:30pm – 4:30pm

(doors open from 1:15pm for registration, please allow time for security check)

Capitol Visitor Center

(located at the East front at First Street and East Capitol Street, NE)

Room 208/209

(please enter through doors next to the lower Senate Appointment Desk)

RSVP not required but places are limited (guests are welcome)

The Project 2049 Institute is a non-profit, non-partisan organization that promotes international security, individual freedom, and democratic institutions in the Asia-Pacific region through high quality, forward-looking research. The institute is based in Washington, D.C.

The Institute is led by President and CEO Randall Schriver and Executive Director Mark Stokes.

www.project2049.net